

Internet Safety

Here are some websites which deal with Internet Safety:

Think U Know

Information for parents, carers and young people on what's good and what's not on the internet, and how to keep safe online. There's also a place which anyone can use to report if they feel uncomfortable or worried about someone they are chatting to online.

www.thinkuknow.com

Child Exploitation and Online Protection

A site dedicated to eradicating the sexual abuse of children

www.ceop.gov.uk

Transl8it (trans-late-it)

Make sense of txt lingo.

www.transl8it.com

Hertfordshire's Grid for Learning

Internet safety information from the website dedicated to supporting schools and education centres in Hertfordshire.

<http://www.thegrid.org.uk/eservices/safety/parents.shtml>

Childnet International

This organisation works with others to "help make the Internet a great and safe place for children".

www.childnet-int.org

National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children

www.nspcc.org.uk

Kidsmart

Kidsmart is an internet safety programme website for schools, young people, parents, and agencies, produced by the children's internet charity Childnet International.

www.kidsmart.org.uk

The Parent's Edge

Giving parents the tools and resources they need to keep their kids safe online. Free guides, how-to's and resources to help parents deal with Myspace dangers and online predators.

www.theparentsedge.com

You will need Adobe Acrobat Reader 5 or a higher version to open PDF files. If you don't already have Acrobat Reader you can download it free from Adobe's website.